SIR:

I have the honour to present to you my Report as Inspector of Legal Offices for the year ending December 31st, 1966.

Progress can again be reported in buildings during the past year. The new court house in Metropolitan Toronto was officially opened in September, 1966. The new registry office in Haileybury, the extension to the court house in Walkerton and extensive renovations in the Kingston court house were also completed. The new court house in Brampton will be completed the end of March of this year and will be officially opened in June. In Bracebridge the alterations to the present court house and the new addition will be completed in May, the alterations to the court house and registry office in Cochrane in April and the interior alterations and renovations are continuing in the court house at Sault Ste. Marie. The alterations and additions at Gore Bay have been approved and tenders have been invited. An extension to the court house at Kenora and renovations to the present building have been approved and draft plans are being prepared.

The associations in all our groups have again been most active and have held instructive meetings both at the zone and provincial levels. Work is continuing on the County Court Clerks' Procedure Manual and the Sheriffs' Procedure Manual.

During the past year new accounting systems were introduced in the offices of sheriffs, county court clerks and magistrates with a minimum of difficulty. These systems, together with the block tariffs of fees in the county court and surrogate fields have lightened the load considerably in these offices. The block tariffs of fees appear to have been extremely well received by the profession and the public. The new short forms have also been well received although some difficulty is still being experienced in the court reporting field where all work is now on short paper, single-spaced. For the Court of Appeal transcripts are prepared on masters and the required number of copies is being produced on an offset press. I feel that in a short while the difficulties we are experiencing in this area will be resolved. Flat filing which has been introduced in a number of offices is proving most efficient and is a great space saver.

The case load in the magistrates courts and the juvenile courts increased substantially during the year and additional appointments to the magisterial bench were made to cope with the increased volume. As at December 31st there were 109 active magistrates and deputy magistrates and additional appointments will be required throughout the coming year, particularly in view of the introduction of the Legal Aid program.

The number of auditors under the direction of Mr. K. H. Parfitt, Comptroller and Chief Accountant, was increased substantially and most of the outside offices were audited during the past year. More time had to be devoted to these audits in view of the introduction of new accounting systems and some difficulties were encountered in certain areas. I feel personally that the accounting control has shown a marked improvement.

Revenues due to the amended tariffs of fees which took effect on September 1st and the increased volume of work in certain areas rose substantially. Increases in magistrates' fines and fees amounted to 24% over 1965 and land transfer tax 25%.
